Plagiarism

Plagiarism is where you use the work of another person and present it as your own. This is akin to stealing and is not permitted. If you are caught encouraging, assisting or committing plagiarism, you will receive negative marks for the work and possibly suspension from the unit.

The University's plagiarism rules are at: <http://www.student.mq.edu.au/plagiarism/>

STUDENT'S DECLARATION

1. In this assignment I have carefully acknowledged the source of any material that is not my own.
2. I am aware that the penalties for plagiarism can be very severe.
3. Where I have collaborated, in any way, with another person, I have indicated the extent of that collaboration.
